

CHARLES LINDBERGH: THE LONE EAGLE

A one-man show written and performed by veteran actor
STEVE CARROLL

Charles Lindbergh continues to intrigue us decades after his death — and Steve Carroll's riveting play has mesmerized audiences all around the country, as he portrays the fascinating story of this unique American icon.

Soar with Lucky Lindy in the cockpit of the Spirit of St. Louis as he battles bad weather, exhaustion — and ghosts — to emerge as the first pilot ever to fly nonstop from New York to Paris. Experience the crushing worldwide fame that overwhelms this shy Minnesota country boy when he lands at Le Bourget Airport. Watch his awkwardly comical courtship of the young and beautiful Anne Morrow, who would blossom into one of the world's first female pilots and a world-renowned author. Witness the heartbreak of their son's kidnapping and murder, and the garish spectacle of the ensuing "Trial of the Century."

Hear Lindbergh's controversial anti-war opinions that led to unfair accusations of Nazi sympathies, and co-pilot with him on a terrifying dogfight with a Japanese fighter plane over the South Pacific in the closing days of World War II. Finally, discover the shocking double life he led in his later years, that has only recently come to light!
